Punctuality Expectations

Having good punctuality is a key part of behavior expectation at Langdon Park School.

You are expected to be on time for school in the morning, as well as be on time for lessons.

If you have not arrived into your lesson by the time the second pips have gone (after break and lunch) your teacher will mark you as late.

- The gates close at 8.37am.
- You need to be seated in your form room by 08.40am.
- If you are on site and not in your form room, then you will be marked late and will get a 20 minute lunch detention that day.
- Failure to attend will result in a 60 minute detention the same day in Maths 7 (near the PE office).
- Anybody who has failed to attend the 60 min detention will have a 2 hour SLT detention on Friday.
- Any student who fails to attend and complete the SLT detention may spend a day in Reset with parents being invited in for a meeting.
- If you are a late for genuine reason like a medical appointment, let the Reception staff or your Head of Year know and they may agree to remove the detention.

What is stopping you from being punctual?

Are you sleeping on time? Have you set your alarms to give you plenty of time to get ready?

Are you getting organised the day before?

Who can help you improve your punctuality?

Anti- Bullying Campaign

Last Thursday was World Down Syndrome Awareness Day, celebrated yearly on March 21 since 2007. This day highlights the uniqueness of the extra 21st chromosome, which causes Down syndrome. People with Down syndrome have various abilities and may need different levels of support. However, like everyone, they have their own personalities, preferences, and strengths. Next Tuesday April 2nd is World Autism Awareness day. Autism is a special way of thinking and learning where the brain works uniquely, impacting socialising, communicating, and behaviours. It's important to celebrate neurodivergent individuals like those with Down syndrome and Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). We should be inclusive, recognizing and respecting differences, whether in learning styles or abilities. Everyone deserves acceptance and understanding, promoting a world where diversity is celebrated and embraced.
